SIX-YEAR-OLD GEORGE NIGH STRUCK BY H. G. & B. CAR

He Was on His Way Home From School and Stepped in Front of the 2.40 West Bound Car at St. Andrews Avenue.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

It Was Found at the Hospital That His Right Foot and Big Toe Were Crushed, and His Left Thigh Broken --- He is a Son of George and Mrs. Nigh, Main St. West.

A most distressing accident occurred on Monday afternoon about a quarter to three, when George, the little six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nigh, Main St. W., was struck by the 2.40 westbound H. G. & B. car at the corner of St. Andrews and Livingston Avenues.

The little lad had just left school and was headed for home when he was struck.

He had gone west up Livingston Ave. to St. Andrews Ave., and had just turned to walk on St. Andrews Ave. when the car came along.

Motorman George Walker saw the little lad start to walk across the crossing when the car was about four car lengths away, he blew his whistle and threw off his power and the little fellow stopped about eight feet from the tracks.

Walker immediately threw on his power and started his car again and had just got under way when the boy stepped upon the track. The car then was only about a length or a half away from the crossing.

When the lad stepped on the track, Walker immediately plugged his car with the reverse, but all his efforts were in vain as he could not stop in time to keep from striking the lad.

The car was stopped within a length of itself, the rear end being on the crossing.

The little fellow was picked up about a half a car length from the crossing, under the car, and it was seen by the passengers and crew that he was seriously injured, although he had not lost consciousness.

He was placed on the car and brought back to the office of Dr. Smith, at the top of the hill and everything was done to make him easier.

After an examination Drs. Smith and Morris decided to take him to the hospital and he was taken to Hamilton on the 5.40 car.

At the hospital it was found that his right foot and big toe were badly crushed and that his left thigh was broken and the toes on his left foot badly crushed. Outside of these injuries and a few bruises no other injury was found. He had a bad bruise on his head that the doctors thought at first would be serious, but it was nothing more than a bruise and had no effect on his brain.

In talking to the INDEPENDENT this morning, Dr. Smith said that the boy had not entirely recovered from the operation when he left the hospital on Tuesday night, but they did not expect any serious results, as he had apparently survived the immediate effects and they looked for a quick recovery.

The little lad was a sturdy, bright little fellow for his age, and the accident was a great blow to his parents.

As far as we can learn there is no one to blame for the accident. Motor on James St. at the time of the accident stop the car and the little fellow has, in all probability, stepped in front of the car in a moment of excitement caused by its approach.

THEY CHARMED "BOBBIE" LOCKWOOD

TWICE PRESIDENT

Mr. Lockwood is the Man Who Jumped Into the Breach in 1909 When the Club Was on Its Last Legs and by Hard Work Put it in Its Present Flourishing Condition.

A very pleasant little affair was enacted in the Grimsby Club rooms on Thursday night last, when Mr. R. S. Lockwood was made the recipient of an address and a Masonic Keystone Emblem.

The presentation was made on the eve of Mr. Lockwood's departure for the west, where he will go into farming on a large scale.

Much of the success of the club has been due to his efforts and in making the address, Mr. W. F. Randall noted the fact that Mr. Lockwood had been the man to jump into the breach in 1909 when the Club was just about down and out, and had, by his untiring efforts and hard work, brought it up to the high standard of perfection which it has now attained.

Mr. Lockwood was president of the Club for the years 1909-10 and was untiring in his efforts to make it the best club in the county and he was certainly successful in his efforts.

The presentation was made by President Randall and Secretary Mariatt.

Mr. Lockwood, in responding, said that he did not mind leaving the old town so very much, but he certainly did hate to leave the club behind, but he thought it was in good hands and he hoped that he would be able to return to its cosy rooms for a few hours at least, before he shuffled off this mortal coil.

THEY BAGGED HERB

Mr. H. F. Gilmore Leaves the Staff of A. F. Hawke to Return to the Land.

Saturday night last witnessed a very pleasant episode in the history of Grimsby's Central Store, when Herbert F. Gilmore, after having been associated with Mr. A. F. Hawke's Central Store for nearly ten years, as chief assistant, handed over the keys of his department and was presented by Mr. A. F. Hawke with a beautiful club bag as a slight mark of esteem.

Herb has gone back to the land, having bought a 15 acre fruit farm at Vineland. He has experience and will make a good farmer.

All who knew him (and there are few who did not) will join us in wishing him everything he would wish himself in his new venture.

WANT THE EDITOR'S GOAT

(With Apologies to Edgar Allen Poe)

As in front of the keyboard sitting, why do angry thoughts come fitting. And the brow begin a-knitting; what has caused him to feel sore? If you glanced at what he's setting, you'll soon see why he's fretting. And the sort of "take" he's getting. Only look, then look some more.

Copy's bad from start to ending. Oh, the stuff they keep a-sending. Gets your goat, which goes a-wentling past you and out through the door.

And—but then it's no use talking. Got to keep your fingers trotting. And you can't sit still, a-gawking. Got to pound those keys some more.

The blamed copy keeps you thinking, and it sets your eyes a blinking; Enough to start a fellow drinking who had never drank before. Punctuation marks are missing, writing makes you do some guessing. It's no wonder you start timing. As you glance the copy o'er.

For you've got to get your lines up, till the eight hours end and time's up. On one thing we've made our minds up, as we've often raved and swore; If our stuff they do not edit, we'll act simply as we get it; For good work we get no credit,— And that is no fairy lore.

WEDDING BELLS ARE RINGING

Two of Grimsby's Popular Young People Being Married This Afternoon.

This afternoon, Wednesday Mar. 19, a very pretty scene is taking place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Wardell, Grimsby, when their daughter, May A. Wardell will be united in the Holy Bonds of matrimony to Mr. James F. Bird, of Grimsby. Rev. Dr. Ross performing the ceremony in the presence of about twenty-five guests.

The bride will be given away by her father, and will wear a gown of duchess satin, trimmed with pearls and rhine stones, carrying a bouquet of bridal roses and orange blossoms.

Miss Annie Wardell, niece of the bride will act as flower girl, crowned in a pink messaline and carrying a basket of pink carnations and maiden hair ferns.

The room is decorated with a bank of ferns and Easter lilies.

The wedding march will be played by Mrs. A. N. Wardell. The bride's sister, Miss Clara Wardell, will be maid of honor.

After the ceremony, a sumptuous repast will be served by Mr. Lloyd of Hamilton.

The bridegroom's gift to the bride is a sunburst of pearls, to the flower girl an opal pin. The bride's traveling suit is of midnight blue broad cloth and a grey hat with trimmings to match.

The happy couple will leave on a short honeymoon to points west.

35c A BUSHEL FOR TOMATOES

That is the Price That the Vineland Growers Are Getting From the Vineland Canning Co.

The Vineland Canning Co. of Vineland, are contracting tomatoes for this season at thirty-five cents a bushel or a raise of five cents a bushel over previous years.

The Dominion Canners and the other factories in this district are still buying at the old price of 30 cents a bushel, but if the Vineland factory can afford to pay thirty-five cents, we can see no reason why the other factories cannot do the same.

It is up to the fruit growers to make them come up with the other five cents a bushel or else grow something else on their land.

HAVE GONE WEST

R. S. Lockwood Leaves For the West With a Carload of Effects---Will Farm 1280 Acres.

Mr. R. S. Lockwood loaded ten fine horses and a half carload of settlers effects at the G. T. R. station here on Saturday last and bid himself away for the virgin wheat fields of western Canada.

Accompanying Mr. Lockwood in the car were Allan Flock and Isaac Sweet, who will help to turn the prairie sod over and harvest the golden wheat on Mr. Lockwood's 1280 farm.

His farm is located about four miles from Eyebrow, Sask. on the Outlook Branch of the C.P.R. and is about eighty miles north of Moose Jaw.

The Winona Civilian Rifle Association held its first meeting of the season in the club rooms on Friday evening, to arrange for the distribution of prizes for the coming season.

GRIMSBY ESPECIALLY FAVORED FOR PEACH GROWING

The Soil is Ideal for Peach Land and Commands a Price of $1000 and More Per Acre --- A Pleasant Trip Across Lake From Toronto.

FLEMING'S MODEL FARM

Its a Long Story From the Few Acres of Fruit Land and the Little Shipments to the E. D. Smith Interests as They Stand To-day

By J. E. B. Greene in Canadian Countryman

It is a pleasant journey across the Lake on the good steamer, City of Chatham. From Toronto to Grimsby by Beach is a run of three hours.

As we approach the southern shore of the lake, the mild breeze brings us fragrance. It is the day in which summer seems to melt into autumn. There is but one such day in the year. The birds tell of it in their busy preparation for their flight to southern fields; the mingled fragrance in the air denotes it; the blue-grey tints in which nature paints the distance are a shade colder than they were yesterday; and most of all an indescribable feeling in the air suggests this last heart-tasting day of summer.

For peach growing, Grimsby is especially favored. The nearby hills to the south and the lake to the north, give it a temperature, in cold weather, about ten degrees higher than that of less favored districts. The soil is an excellent sandy loam. It extends to a good depth. This ideal peach land, which is quite limited in extent, commands a price of one thousand dollars per acre.

Along the lake westward, toward Winona, the soil gradually changes from sandy loam to a clay loam, which is found more desirable for grapes, cherries and plums than for peaches. Even in this favorably proportioned orchard, another fifteen in a "one-acre orchard."

The favorite varieties of peaches grown in this vicinity are the Triumph, Yellow St. John, the Crawford and the Elberta. These are shipped mostly west and east by rail to Hamilton, London, Kingston, Ottawa, Montreal and intermediate points. Very few peaches from this district reach Toronto, as the Niagara boats supply the Toronto market from Jordan, Port Dalhousie and the Niagara district.

This year, the crop as a whole, is even better than last year. This is especially true of the Crawford varieties. The transportation facilities (Continued on page 5).

I.O.O.F. AT-HOME AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

Over 150 Oddfellows, Their Wives and Friends, Sat Down to a Sumptuous Spread in the Village Inn Annex on Thursday Night

W. H. WHITE ENTERTAINS

After the Most Excellent Toast List Had Been Disposed of, Dancing Was Indulged in Until the wee sma' Hours of the Morning.

The members of Court Grimsby Independent Order of Oddfellows held their annual at-home in the Annex of the Village Inn on Thursday night last and it was indeed a brilliant function.

About one hundred and seventy-five Oddfellows, their wives and friends, sat down to the heavily loaded tables of choice viands supplied by the ladies and it was certainly a beautiful sight to see so many smiling faces, so many fine looking men all seated at the beautifully decorated tables in a very prettily decorated hall, prominent amongst the decorations being a large "three links" which hung above the centre table.

After dispensing with a most sumptuous repast, Bro. Geo. E. Miller, past D.D.G.M., acting in the capacity of toast master, called for the toast of Our Order, coupled with the name of Bro. Dudge, D. D. G. M. of Hamilton.

Bro. Dudge gave a brief history of the work of the Oddfellows Lodge in Canada and congratulated the Grimsby lodge on its success.

Time that it had been in existence and also upon the fine assemblage of people that had gathered together for the annual at-home.

Bro. Miller then read telegrams of regrets which he had received from Bro. H. H. Wyllie and Bro. Mann, Past D. D. G. M.

The toast to the "Ladies" was next seen and responded to by Bro. Jas. A. Livingston, in his usual capable manner.

"Our Lodge" was responded to by Bro. Richard Wittenburg, N. G., who in a few well chosen words, told of the "good work" that was being done by the Grimsby Lodge and of its rapid growth, which was if any of its substantial nature. He also spoke of the work which was being done throughout Ontario by the Order.

"Our Town" was responded to by Bro. Councillor Wm. Mitchell, who said in part "I am not surprised at the rapid growth of this lodge, because it is a town that is growing rapidly and the Oddfellows Order, like Grimsby, was a good thing and you could not keep either one of them from growing. Grimsby is prospering and the lodge is prospering and the both of them are going to continue to prosper and grow bigger."

"The Visiting Brethren" was responded to by Bros. H. H. Marsh and Dr. Morris. Mr. Marsh was very pleased to see so many brethren and "St. Ridley" present on such an auspicious occasion and hoped that they would all be spared to gather together many times more.

"The Encampment" was responded to by Bros. Smith and Harvey of Hamilton and they both expressed the wish that Grimsby would soon establish an Encampment in connection with the Grimsby Lodge and also a Rebecca L-4ge.

Mr. Miller then called for the assemblage to "Drink to the health of Bro. Drinkwater of Hamilton."

Throughout the supper, excellent music was supplied by Haycraft's orchestra of Hamilton and it was enjoyed very much.

During the evening, the toast list was interspersed by comic songs by Mr. W. H. White, and they were very acceptable indeed. Mr. White is a "bit" of a story teller of no mean ability and Grimsby is very lucky in having an entertainer of his stamp in its midst and we feel sure that everyone who has heard him, and they are many, were well pleased with his efforts.

After the toast list had been disposed of, the hall was cleared and the merry crowd spent a couple of hours tripping the light fantastic till the wee sma' hours, both young and old joining in and having a right good time.

Fruit growers desiring help may secure the services of young men from the Old Country, who are coming out in April, and expect to attend the Agricultural College, in September. Wages must average about $15 a month and board. A number will arrive in Guelph from April 1 to 15. Anyone in the Grimsby District desiring one or more of these men, will please notify the president of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

THE SHADOW ON THE BLIND

Mr. Ferdinand Plum was a grocer by trade; by attention and tact he a fortune had made. No tattler, or maker of mischief was he. But as honest a man as you would wish to see. Of a chapel close by he was deacon, they say. And his minister lived just over the way.
Mr. Plum was retiring to rest one night. He had just undressed and put out the light. And pulled back the blind as he peeped from behind.
'Tis a custom with many to do so. You'll find;
When glancing his eye he happened
On the blind just over the way. O! he! Two shadows, each movement, of course, he could see. And the people were quarrelling evidently.
Well, I never! said Plum, as he witnessed the strife.
"I declare," his minister, beating his wife.
The minister held a thick stick in his hand. And his wife ran away as he shook the brand.
While her shrieks and her cries were quite shocking to hear. And the sounds came across most remarkably clear.
Well, things are deceiving, but seeing is believing.
Said Plum to himself, as he turned into bed.
Now, who would have that man would have fought
And beaten his wife on her shoulders and head.
With a great big stick, at least three inches thick.
I'm sure her screaming quite filled me with dread.
I have a notion to bring the whole of the thing
Before the church members, but no, I have read
A proverb, which said, "Least said, soonest mended."
And thus Mr. Plum's mild soliloquy ended.

But alas! The deacon's eldest daughter, Miss Jane.
Saw the whole of the act and could not refrain
From telling Miss Spott, and Miss Spott told again.
Though of course, in strict confidence, everyone
Whom she happened to meet, what the parson had done;
So the news spread around and soon reached the ears
Of the parson, who traced it. I hear, to the author, Miss Jane.
Jane did not deny, but at the same time begged leave to defy
The parson to prove she had uttered a lie.
A church meeting was called. Mr. Plum made a speech.
He said, "Friends, pray listen a while, I beseech,
What my daughter has said is most certainly true.
For I saw the whole scene on the same evening, too;
But not wishing to make an un-
anxious wife,
I did not tell either my daughter or wife.
But, of course, as Miss Jane saw the whole of the act,
I think it but right to attest to the fact."
"The remarkably strange," the minister replied,
"It is plain Miss Jane must something have spied.
Though the wife-beating story, of course, is denied,
And in that I can say, I am grossly misled.
While he scratches his head and ponders and tries
To think of some scene that might surely give rise
To so monstrous a tale, just then his wife cries,
"I have it, my love, you remember the night.

When I had such a horrible, terrible terrible fright!
We both were retiring at night to rest,
I was seated, my dear, and but partly undressed,
When a horrid old rat ran close by my feet;
My screaming was heard, I suppose, in the street.
You picked up the poker and ran round the room,
And at last knocked the rat as so sealed its doom.
Our shadows, my love, must have played on the blind,
And that is the mystery solved, you will find."

IN MEMORIAM

Johnson—in loving memory of dear mother, Maria Johnson, who departed this life on March 14, 1907. You're not forgotten, mother dear, Nor will you ever be;
So long as life and memory last We will remember thee.

We miss thee, oh, we miss thee From thy familiar place!
We do not hear thy footsteps near Nor see thy cheerful face.

We miss thy kind words spoken, We miss thy pleasant smile;
We miss the fond look of thine eye, We miss thee all the while.

Now as the days seem long and lonely, And it's such a weary wait!
But we know, oh, dearest mother, You'll be waiting at the gate.

The organized adult Bible class held a social time at the home of Arthur and Mrs. Spera on Wednesday evening when a very enjoyable time was spent. Miss Sarah Slingerland is confined to the house with the grippe.
A service will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday morning next at 11 o'clock, under the W. M. S. The members will compose the choir for both the morning and evening services. In the evening, an Easter service will be held.

The Woman's Institute held its regular meeting in the hall on Thursday afternoon. Inspector J. H. Smith was present and gave a very interesting address. The Institute will hold its meetings in the future in the Parish Hall.

Mrs. (Rev.) W. G. Davis is very low with muscular rheumatism. The concert given by the Pine Grove Society at the school in the hall here, on Friday evening, was quite a success. Every one enjoyed a good laugh.

Word was received here last week of the severe illness of Margaret Chittick, who is in Toronto training for a nurse. Her parents have been with her nearly all the week, she having contracted typhoid fever.

About fifty friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Cowan on Saturday evening and gave her and her daughter Ida a surprise farewell party on their leaving for the west soon. A beautiful bouquet of roses, carnations and ferns was presented to Miss Cowan from the Ladies' Home Club, of which she is President. Lunch was then served by the company and after singing "God be With You Till We Meet Again," the party broke up.

A CORRECTION

In last week's paper, in the write-up of the sale of Mr. Geo. Crain's brick works, we stated that Mr. Crain had run three kilns and that the new firm would build four more. We should have said that Mr. Crain had six kilns and that four new ones would be built, making a total of ten kilns.

A FAREWELL PARTY

At the home of Mr. John Packham, on Thursday evening, Mar. 13, the young people of the Abingdon Epworth League gave a farewell party to their retiring pastor Mr. R. M. Atkins.

A very profitable and enjoyable evening was spent in games and music, many of the former being novel and interesting.

Immediately following luncheon the secretary, on behalf of the League, presented a Methodist hymnal to Mr. Atkins as an expression of their esteem.

Mr. Atkins very fittingly replied. He thanked them for their kind remembrance and said he was glad to have been a young person among the young people of Ker Circuit.

He had been connected with many leagues in city and country, but never in one where the young people worked so earnestly and untiringly.

The fact that there were present at the party, as active League workers, members of several denominations of the neighborhood, stands as a monument to Mr. Atkins' personality and endeavor.

After joining hands and singing "Auld Lang Syne" the young people dispersed with best wishes to Mr. Atkins for his future career.

RECITAL THURSDAY NIGHT

A delightful programme will be given in the Sneltinger Hall, Thursday, March 20, by Miss Gertrude Barr and Miss Myrtle Krick, piano pupils of F. M. Howard, assisted by Mrs. Robt. Jex cellist and Mr. Norman Gleave, bass. Mr. Gleave has a remarkably low voice of rich full quality and his singing is sure to please. Mrs. Jex is the cellist in the Howard String Quartette which was so enthusiastically received here recently.

There will be no admission charged, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The programme follows:

1. LIZET Dream of Love
Lizet, born in Hungary in 1811, was a piano virtuoso of the first rank, for which he is better remembered than for his creative genius.
2. SCHUMANN Novelletten in D minor
Schumann was a remarkable pianist, but his compositions were not at first fully appreciated. His music is now one of the most popular of his time. This novelletten is a study in his close harmony which is especially dissonant in places.
3. JUDE The Mighty Deep
MR. NORMAN GLEAVE
4. BOHM Sequitilla
The Sequitilla is a lively dance of Spanish origin now obsolete as a dance, but the form is often used as a basis for artistic creations.
5. REYNOLD The Fountain
Reynold, though not a singer of great distinction, has written many light drawing room pieces. This little tone poem suggests the playful waters of a fountain.
6. TSCHAIKOWSKY Chant Sans Pareille
This "Song without words" is one of the Russian composer's best known little melodies. His genius at composition is best shown in his symphonies, which are marvellous works of art.
7. CHOPIN Valse in E minor
Most of Chopin's compositions seem to have an underlying vein of melancholy throughout. His life in Paris was not altogether a happy one, and consumption ended his career prematurely.
8. MENDELSSOHN Andante and Rondo Caprice
It is interesting to trace the playful application of the motive of this caprice which runs through the entire Rondo, now in one voice part, now in another, with varying harmonies and combinations, yet forming one symmetrical whole.
9. MISS GERTRUDE BARR
10. PETERIE A Thousand Pathos Deep
MR. NORMAN GLEAVE
11. MATHESON Minuet
MRS. ROBERT JEX
12. ASCHER Transcription "Alto"
This well known song has been beautifully transcribed by Ascher in his adaptation of it for the piano.
13. MISS MYRTLE KRICK
14. GREGG Norwegian Wedding March
The quaint harmonies and peculiar rhythms of the Norwegian folk song are well pictured by Gregg in this old march. His ability as a writer of this style is known world wide.
15. MISS GERTRUDE BARR

THIRTY MOUNTAIN

Mr. John Wismer of Beamsville, preached at the church last Sunday. Mrs. Alex Sweet has returned from St. Catharines hospital much improved. Mr. Surrey spent the week end in Toronto. Quite a number attended the funeral of the late Mr. R. Konkle, who was well and favorably known here.

CARD OF THANKS

Being unable to see all my kind friends in this district, who have so kindly donated to the subscription which was taken up by Mr. Thos. Murphy, for me, I wish to take this means of thanking them one and all for their kind assistance and their help. I am also glad to thank Mr. Murphy for his kindness in taking up the subscription.

Yours truly, James Gane.

The Amateur Gentleman

By Jeffery Farnol

Without doubt "The Broad Highway," by Jeffery Farnol, issued two years ago, was the most likable novel of the last decade.

"The Amateur Gentleman" is his first long novel published since. The period is the same as "The Broad Highway." Many critics claim the story is superior. It carries you along with a great swing—we can't quite express our good will.

The adventures of Barnabas, "The Amateur Gentleman," will give you many an hour of delight.

HERE IS GOOD ADVICE TO TAKE

It will help those who have Kidney and Bladder Trouble. There are other "old enemies" similar to the one mentioned in this testimonial. Kidney and Bladder Troubles are always enemies to good health. As soon as you start to take GIN PILLS these ailments begin to disappear. The same in cases of Lumbago, Sciatica and like complaints. This letter illustrates the benefit of GIN PILLS.

Winnipeg, Jan. 10.
"I have been a sufferer from Lumbago for some years past and during Christmas week had a very acute attack which confined me to the house. About the latter part of April I met your Mr. Hill and mentioned my complaint to him. He advised me to take GIN PILLS. I have been taking them at intervals during the early part of the present winter, and up to date have had no return of my old trouble—in fact, I feel better than I have for years and think that my old enemy has vanished for good and all."

TWO WOMEN TESTIFY

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Their Health—Their Own Statements Follow.

Haliburton, P.E.I.—"I had a doctor examine me and he said I had falling of the womb, so I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a lot of good. All the bearing-down pains have vanished. I have gained ten pounds in weight. The discharge is all gone, and I feel better than I have in a long time. I think any woman is foolish to suffer as I did for the sake of a few dollars."

"You can use my letter as a testimonial. It may encourage other poor women who suffer as I did to use your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. G. COLLETT, Haliburton, P.E.I.

Read What This Woman Says: New Moorefield, Ohio.—"I take great pleasure in thanking you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had bearing down pains, was dizzy and weak, had pains in lower back and could not be upon my feet long enough to get a meal. As long as I laid on my back I would feel better, but when I would get up those bearing down pains would come back, and the doctor said I had female trouble. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was the only medicine that helped me and I have been growing stronger ever since I commenced to take it. I hope it will help other suffering women as it has me. You can use this letter."—Mrs. CASSIE LLOYD, New Moorefield, Clark Co., Ohio.

DEATH OF MRS. W. B. DURHAM

One of this district's best known and highly respected residents was called to a higher and more pretentious home on Thursday, March 13, 1913, when Elizabeth Jane, beloved wife of Mr. W. B. Durham, passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. D. Walker, on Mountain St.

The deceased lady had not been in the best of health for some months but had been able to move around until about three weeks ago, when she became so ill that she had to keep her bed, where she gradually grew worse until the end came on Thursday afternoon last.

Mrs. Durham was her sixty-ninth year and was born in Northamptonshire, England, moving to Canada with her parents when quite young.

A little over forty-nine years ago she was married to Mr. Durham in Smithville and they have lived in this district together for nearly half a century.

Besides a son, and she leaves to mourn her loss, we daughters, Mrs. J. H. D. Walker, Grimsby and Mrs. J. H. D. Walker, Grimsby.

The funeral, which was very large, was attended by friends and relatives from far and near, was held on Saturday afternoon, March 15, interment taking place in St. Andrew's church cemetery.

Services were conducted at the house and grave by Rev. J. Allan Ballard and Rev. Mr. Thompson of Beamsville.

LIVERY CHANGES HANDS

The livery business carried on by Mr. Reginald Ferris, on Depot St., for the past two years, has changed hands and the new owners are Mr. David Gowan and Sons, also of Grimsby.

Mr. Ferris has in the past run a good livery and teaming business and was always on the job when he was wanted.

The new firm will continue the livery and teaming business and bespeak a share of your patronage.

How a cut led to 4 years of suffering

Mr. J. E. Arsenault, a Justice of the Peace and station master at Wellington, on the P.E.I. Ry., says: "Four years ago I fell on a freight truck, sustaining a bad cut on the front of my leg. I thought this would heal, but instead it developed into a bad ulcer, and later into a form of eczema which spread very rapidly and also started on the other leg. Both legs became so swollen and sore that I could only go about my work by having them bandaged."

"I consulted two doctors, and tried all the salves, liniments and lotions I heard of, but instead of getting better I got worse."

How Zam-Buk cured.

"This was my condition when I got my first box of Zam-Buk. Greatly to my relief that first box gave me relief. I continued to apply it to the sores, and day by day they got better. I could see that at last I had got hold of something which would cure me, and in the end it did."

"It is now over a year since Zam-Buk worked a cure in my case, and there has been no return of the eczema."

Purely herbal in composition, Zam-Buk is a sure cure for all skin diseases, cold sores, chapped hands, ulcers, blood-poisoning, various sores, piles, ringworm, inflamed patches, cuts, burns and bruises. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, or sent free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for trial.

Grimsby Especially Favored

are going to be taxed to their utmost to carry the heavy crop to market without delay.

The Fleming model peach orchard at Grimsby is worthy of a visit from one interested in fruit growing. Here a nine-acre orchard has been developed to a perfection rarely found even in this district, which is noted for its orchards beautiful to look upon. The thoroughness with which the soil has been worked up is at once noticeable and reminds one of the carefully cultivated carpet-like earth beneath the orange trees in the California orchards.

As an interesting department in connection with the regular work, experiments are being conducted with certain varieties of English hot-house peaches. The Lady Darby peach grafted on the French plum and others, are making favorable growth and beginning to bear fruit.

In this orchard the individual trees are studied. A student from the Grimsby Agricultural College is giving special attention to methods of soil fertilization and to tree diseases. He has found that very few of the peach orchards in this local fruit growing district are exempt from the various tree diseases. The "Yellow" and "Little Peach" are discovered occasionally and the infected trees marked for immediate removal. The San Jose Scale and "Leaf curl" are kept under control by the lime-sulphur spray, which is applied while the tree is dormant, usually during the month of April.

In addition to the care which each tree receives for the promotion of its healthy growth, the crop of fruit in its early stage is inspected, and if over-abundant, is thinned out for the purpose of getting larger and choicer specimens of fruit which will command a higher price.

The shipment of peaches to England from this district has been undertaken by a few growers in recent years, but it has not been profitable. The expense of individual wrapping and the careful packing necessary, together with the cost of extensive shipments across the sea.

The peaches grown here are of more tender flesh than the southern grown peaches and require more care in packing when shipped to distant points.

In England peaches are being received in larger quantities each year from South Africa, where the cost of labor in growing and packing is considerably less than in Canadian peach districts.

The large yellow-fleshed Elberta peach is considered the best for the shipping purposes, although the foliage of this tree seems more susceptible to "leaf curl" than some of the other varieties. This affection may be easily controlled by the lime sulphur spray. Throughout the district it is a general favorite. Many crates of the Elberta peaches entered the Toronto market from Arkansas and from Georgia in the early season.

Westward, through this prosperous belt of fruit groves and attractive homes, one must stop for an hour or two at Winona. Here on a small farm by the hills some years ago a fruit grower had planned for better shipping facilities. He operated with his neighbors. He sometimes bought their crops and shipped them with his own. There were difficulties—many of them. The supply was sometimes greater than the demand; a large quantity of over-ripe fruit was often accumulated. How could the loss thus incurred be eliminated? The fruit might be canned or perhaps made into jam, that seemed a good idea. The idea has been put into successful practice. The right man is back of it. In this case the right man happened to be E. D. Smith, Esq. M. P.

It is a long story from the few acres of fruit land, and the first little shipments, to the E. D. Smith interests as they stand today; but, briefly, there are nine hundred acres of choice fruit land scattered here and there, from Stoney Creek to Port Dalhousie. Acres of grapes, acres of peaches, plums and cherries; acres of all kinds of fruit; and acres of nursery trees for those who valued pure and hardy stock.

Shipping depots, to handle the fruit from this acreage, and from the orchards of surrounding fruit growers, are located at Winona, Stoney Creek, Grimsby and St. Catharines. Fruit growers sending their fruit to these receiving stations are paid at the current market price. The fruit is graded, carefully packed and shipped in ventilated express cars or by fast freight in refrigerator cars.

The head office and the jam factory are located at Winona. The canning factories are located at Beamsville and at Petrolia. Each of these factories employ in the neighborhood of two hundred workers. The produce of these orchards and factories is shipped north, east and west to all parts of the Dominion. The greater part of the fresh fruit is consumed in Ontario. The jams and canned fruits find a large market in the prairie provinces. A few samples are exported to Great Britain.

At Winona from the protecting hill to the south of the acres of orchards and vineyard one may get an extensive view, which reveals from the foot of the hill, is a nineteen-acre vineyard of Niagara grapes, then beyond are orchards and more orchards of plums, cherries and pears, and fields of tomatoes. We look down over the straight rows of trees away to the lake.

Along the roadways, far and near, we see teams all moving toward a centre point. We know these are loads of fruit on their way to the receiving station. Over to the right the flowing stream of smoke from the high brick chimneys, tells us that two hundred workers are busy in the jam factory.

In comprehending the evolution and extensive development of this particular branch of industry, and in observing the details of system and care throughout the factories, one cannot lose sight of "the man behind" nor of the ideal toward which

ROBERT W. HADGRAFT PASSES AWAY

The grim reaper visited our midst on Sunday night and removed from this earthly sphere, Mr. Robert William Hadgraft, living on the David Orr farm on the top of the Grimsby Mountain.

Mr. Hadgraft had only been a resident of this town for about two months, moving here from Port Dalhousie and purchasing the Orr farm.

About ten days ago he was stricken with a severe attack of typhoid pneumonia, which he was unable to fight off and he passed peacefully away on Sunday night.

Mr. Hadgraft was only forty-eight years of age, and leaves a wife and four children to mourn his early demise.

A. O. F. AT HOME

The members of the Grimsby Court of the A. O. F. held a successful concert and dance in the Grimsby Hall, on Tuesday last to defray the cost of furnishing the Grimsby Club recently formed in the New Hall. The concert was carried through under the genial chairmanship of Mr. Hamilton Fleming, and was opened with a well executed pianoforte solo by Miss Pearl Brooks, who also acted very efficiently as accompanist for the evening.

Songs were rendered in good style by Messrs. J. Lane and W. E. Cullington and a duet by the former and Mr. Frank Rees was deservedly encored. An old favorite, with Grimsby, Miss Alma Bookings, of Hamilton, gave several recitals in her usual effective style, which were well appreciated. Messrs. House obliged with several violin selections.

On the motion of Mr. A. Hayhoe the services of the chairman and those who had assisted in the success of the concert was suitably acknowledged.

The floor was then cleared for dancing. Mr. E. Kennedy acted as M. C. and the devotion of the "light fantastic toe" tripped it gaily till the small hours of the morning.

Give Your Boy a Farm

Every farmer wants to provide for his sons, but seldom will the old homestead, developed with toil, suffice to meet their needs. The boys have been brought up to the land. They are familiar with all the phases of farming. They should have land of their own. How is the farmer going to meet this emergency?

The Logical Answer is Western Canada

Thousands of acres, divided into 160 acre farms, are being thrown open for entry by the Dominion Government along or near the lines of the Canadian Northern Railway

The land gives a wide choice. There are some plots on the open prairie and others again in the well-wooded, well-watered districts in

Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta

A large number of these homesteads are particularly adapted to mixed farming.

Write or Enquire To-Day

Any agent of the Canadian Northern Railway, or the undersigned will be glad to send, on application, full information as to the location of these homesteads and the way to secure and reach them. Write for "The Bread Basket", "35,000 Free Homesteads" and our Peace River Booklet. You will be interested.

Pre-Cooling and Cold Storage Plant at Pomona, California

Reprinted from Cold of February 1913

So much has been said and written about the pre-cooling of oranges before they are shipped from California that this has become rather an old story in that great fruit growing section. And yet, for various reasons, but few plants have as yet been erected for this purpose. One thing that has operated to deter the Orange Growers' Associations from erecting their own plants has been the attitude of the railroads in attempting to discourage this, because such plants might interfere to some extent with the icing business of the railroads, and also a pet theory of theirs, that by blowing some cold air through a loaded refrigerator car for a few hours the fruit contained therein can be properly pre-cooled. But not many of those who are seeking the best possible results are convinced that the further advantage of being able to hold in cold storage for a time, some of their fruit instead of shipping it all as fast as packed. In this way a considerable business was offered to the Pomona Valley Ice Company, which has a well equipped ice factory at this point. For a time the oranges sent to this concern for pre-cooling or storage were handled in one section of their ice storage rooms, but as that space was needed for the storage of ice, the company decided about a year ago to erect a pre-cooling and cold storage house especially designed for the handling of oranges.

Views of this plant are shown herewith. The building is approximately sixty by ninety feet, with a basement and two floors above ground. It is well constructed with cement foundations and brick walls which are well water-proofed and insulated. Jones Refrigerator Doors are used throughout, and Alvey-Ferguson Roller Conveyors are used for handling the fruit in and out of the basement and first floor, and to and from the electric elevator, which handles the goods to and from the 2nd floor. Commodious hallways cross through the building from the wagon platform to the railroad side of the building, and on either side of this hallway, in the basement, are two storage rooms, each of a capacity of from five to seven carloads according to the height to which the boxes are piled. The same arrangement of rooms occurs on the first floor. On one side of the hallway on the second floor are two more storage rooms, and on the other side next to the factory are four coil rooms. The general arrangement of plant is shown by the plans and sections.

At first it was the intention of the Company to refrigerate the cold storage house with the Madison Cooper Brine System of refrigeration, but because of the proximity of their refrigerating machinery, it was finally decided to pump ammonia from the engine room through the coils of pipe in the coil rooms, but the whole arrangement is as similar as possible to what it would have been had the Cooper Brine System been used.

As will be seen in the accompanying photograph, each coil is made of a continuous bent pipe. The Cooper Forced Air Circulating System is used, air being driven by a special Cooper fan located in each coil room through airducts leading to the various storage rooms. In one of the accompanying views these air-ducts can be seen, also the perforations in the false floor through which the air is admitted to the storage rooms. One can also see in this same picture, the corresponding openings in the false ceiling through which the air is returned to the coil rooms to be again chilled after it has been somewhat warmed by doing its work of refrigeration. The whole plant is so well designed and insulated that no difficulty is found in maintaining any desired temperature. There is a surprisingly small difference in temperature between the coil rooms and the storage rooms, and even when it is found desirable to not operate the refrigerating machinery for some hours, practically no rise of temperature occurs in the storage rooms containing fruit which has been thoroughly cooled. When this is to be done, chloride of calcium is not placed in the baskets shown above the coils, and thus frost forms on the coils which acts as a bank of ice, and furnishes ample refrigeration for a considerable period if the fans are run, even though the compressors are not pumping ammonia through the coils.

View in orange pre-cooling and storage room, equipped with the Cooper False Floor and False Ceiling System of Air Circulation.

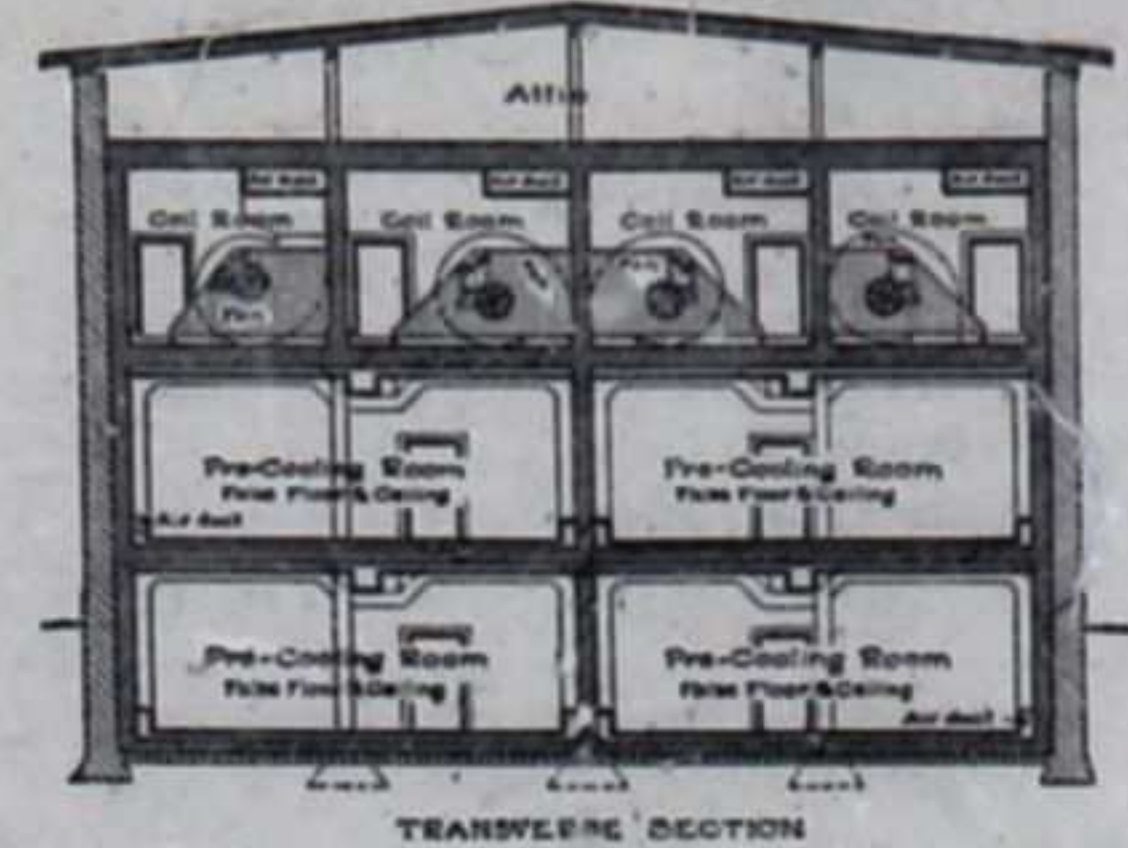

View in coil showing frosted ammonia coils.

the plan advocated by the railroad is the best one to follow, and still, because of the long drawn out litigation in connection with the matter, and perhaps, for local reasons, few plants of this sort have been erected.

However, in and near Pomona, which is one of the great centers of the orange industry, a number of the Orange Growers' Associations saw the advantage of pre-cooling their fruit before loading it into the cars, and Office under the pepper mill. Aqua pura always on tap.

TRANSVERSE SECTION

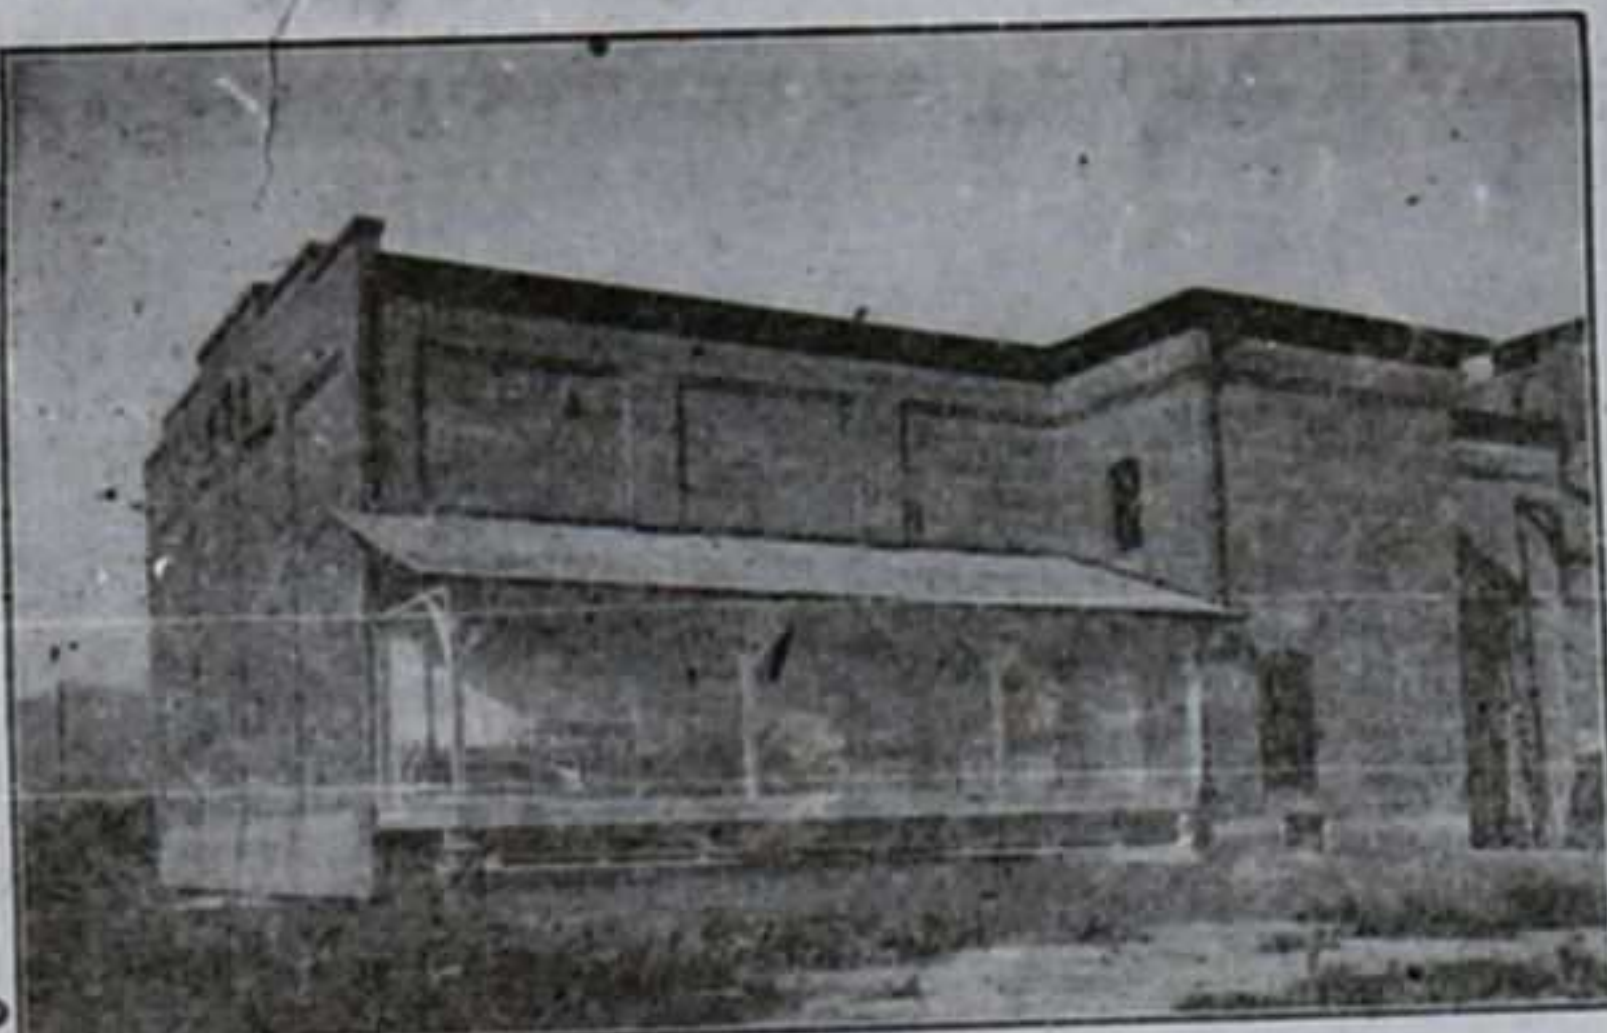

However, for quick cooling, it has been found very desirable to use the Cooper Calcium Chloride Process in order to remove the frost, and thereby get greater efficiency from the coils as well as to purify the air in the storage rooms during the early period of storage when the fruit is giving off much of its gas. This arrangement of combined ice making and pre-cooling seems to be a mutually advantageous arrangement for an ice plant located in a fruit growing district, and for growers located near such a plant. It makes business for the one and furnishes very desirable facilities for the other and at storage rates which the experienced manager of a refrigerating plant can readily understand are less than could be obtained by a fruit shipping concern which operates its plant only for pre-cooling and is therefore able to use its full capacity during only a comparatively small portion of each year.

Complete plans for the insulation, arrangement and refrigeration were furnished by Madison Cooper Company, Refrigerating Engineers and Architects, Calcium, N. Y.

NEW REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE FREE ENTRY OF PURE BREED ANIMALS

Ottawa, March 11.—On the first of April this year there will come into force new regulations governing the free entry to Canada of animals for the improvement of stock. To this end the following amended regulations have been adopted by Order in Council for the guidance of Importers and Customs House officers:

"1. No animal imported for the improvement of stock shall be admitted free of duty unless the owner is a British subject, resident in the British Empire, or if more than one owner, each a British subject, resident in the British Empire and there is furnished an Import Certificate stating that the animal is recorded in a Canadian National Record or in a Foreign Record recognized as reliable by the National Record Committee.

"A statutory declaration by the owner or one of the owners, that he is a British subject, or that each is a British subject resident in the British Empire and that such animal is the identical animal described in such certificate must be provided, and that such animal is being imported into Canada for the improvement of stock.

"2. In case such certificate is not at hand at the time of the arrival of the animal, entry for duty may be accepted subject to refund of the duty upon the production of the requisite certificates and proofs in due form satisfactory to the collector within one year from the time of entry.

"3. The form of certificate to be accepted for the free importation of animals for the improvement of stock, and the Customs procedure in connection therewith shall be subject to the direction of the Minister of Customs.

"4. The above declarations shall be attached to the Free Import Entry and may be made before the Collector, Sub-Collector, Surveyor or Chief Clerk at the port where the goods are entered or before any functionary authorized by law to administer oaths.

"Under the old regulations, a British subject residing in a foreign country or the citizen of another country living in Canada could secure the free entry of property recorded in the Canadian National Record or in a Foreign Record recognized as reliable by the National Record Committee.

Customs officers are required to examine carefully the animals presented for entry to see that they correspond with the description contained in the Import Certificate, and if they do not duty is collected.

The statutory declarations required regarding citizenship and identity will, it is hoped, effectively prevent abuses that led to the passing of the new regulations.

As in the past, animals are subjected to veterinary inspection at the port of entry. Officials of the Health of Animals Branch who do this work, are required to make a report as to color and markings. If it is found by the Canadian National Record that foreign certificates of registration do not correspond with these reports, Canadian registration and import certificates for the animals in question are refused.

CO-OPERATIVE EXPERIMENTS IN WEED ERADICATION, 1913.

During the season of 1912, the Ontario Agricultural Experimental Union carried on co-operative experiments in the eradication of Perennial Sow Thistle, Twitch Grass, Bladder Campion and Wild Mustard. A number of practical men took part in these experiments and some very interesting and valuable results were obtained. A properly cultivated crop of rape was found to be an excellent means of destroying Perennial Sow Thistle and Twitch Grass. Rape proved more effective in destroying Twitch Grass than did Buckwheat. Thorough and deep cultivation followed by potatoes and corn gave good results in the control of Bladder Campion. Spraying with Iron or Copper Sulphate proved to be a cheap and effective means of destroying Mustard in growing grain without injury to the crop. Those who took part in these experiments profited by the experience. They learned the field experiment upon demonstrated to their own satisfaction the effectiveness of the methods used at the same time their results furnished practical information to others.

These co-operative experiments in weed eradication will be continued this year (1913) and it is hoped that a large number of men will take part in them in order that sufficient data may be gathered to warrant definite statements being made regarding the best methods of controlling these pernicious weeds. The experiments are as follows: (1) the use of rape in the destruction of Perennial Sow Thistle; (2) a system of intensive cropping and cultivation, using winter rye followed by turnips, rape or buckwheat, for eradicating Perennial Sow Thistle; (3) the use of rape in the destruction of Twitch Grass; (4) a method for the eradication of Bladder Campion or Cow Bell; (5) spraying with iron sulphate to destroy mustard in cereal crops.

Those who are troubled with any of these bad weeds are invited to write to the Director of Co-operative Experiments in Weed Eradication, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ontario, who will be glad to furnish full information concerning these experiments and to supply application blanks for the same. All experiments will be supplied with full and detailed instructions for carrying on the experiment selected and with blank forms on which to report the results of the same. All interested in clean farming are asked to co-operate in the work. Address all communications to J. E. Howitt, Botanical Department, Ontario Agricultural College, Ontario.

A FUNNY ONE

At the March meeting of the Dunnville Village Council, the following letter was received: Read it, Gentlemen.—Mare, Reef and Councilors of Dunnville:

Take notice, that I, Albert Kostuk, paid $25 licence on October 7, 1912, till October 7, 1913, and this licence was granted to me to sell meat on this town. Jas. Stevens and William Hamilton, both police of Dunnville, both of them order me off the street, and here I ask you pay me back my $25 licence, and I won't be moved more on the street and sell meat, and if you don't do that I will enter an action against you councilors for damage. Hope this will satisfy you. I remain, your truly, Albert Kostuk. This was done on the 25 day of Feb.—Dunnville Chronicle.

BINDROOK

The Bindbrook Literary society held a splendid meeting on March 11. The debate was: Resolved, that men are influenced by fashion more than women are. Messrs Bates and Roberts debated for the affirmative and Messrs Ecker and Beatty for the negative. The referees being men, the decision was, of course, given to the negative. The meeting for next week has been withdrawn on account of the Glandford and Bindbrook school convention being held at the Methodist church here on the afternoon and evening of March 18. The Bindbrook society is arranging to give a return program at Elfrida, on Thursday, March 20.

This county stands seventh in the salaries paid male teachers but is away down the scale for female teachers. The legislative grant to the schools of the county was $7,312, while the total receipts from all sources was $108,479. This included some $55,600 from the clergy reserves. The total salaries of teachers was $34,297.83.

APPLES 40 CENTS A PIECE

Missouri apples were listed on the menu cards of several exclusive New York hotels the past winter at forty cents each, which, remarks a writer in the March issue of the Technical World Magazine, was about the cost of a half bushel of apples anywhere in the open market.

When the early prospects of a large apple crop in all sections of America became assured in midsummer, a grower of Lebanon, Mo., with an orchard of 100 acres, realized that something unusual would have to be done to get more than a living price for his crop. He went to New York to solicit orders. He had the idea that an exclusive offering would command high prices and suggested to some of the commission men that they try a few individual boxes of apples for the trade, in addition to their order for several thousand barrels of apples for the general market. One New York commission man thereupon signed a contract for 6,000 apples for which he was to pay fifteen cents each at Lebanon. The number being limited to make them sufficiently exclusive.

Each apple was perfectly sound of high color and uniform shape, not less than three and one-half inches in diameter, more than a quarter of an inch larger. Each stem had at least two perfect leaves attached and each apple was packed in an attractive pasteboard box and the top sealed.

OLD RESIDENT DEAD

After an illness of short duration, there passed away in Clinton township Sunday, one of its oldest residents, in the person of Robert Konkle. Deceased was known throughout the whole Niagara peninsula and was the last of a large family, who were the earliest settlers of this part of the country. He was a staunch Conservative all his life and took a great interest in the welfare of the Orange Order. He was a member of the Presbyterian church on the mountain and one of its most loyal supporters. A number of years ago deceased erected a saw mill on his farm and since that time has followed the lumber business extensively. The death of Mr. Konkle came as a shock to a large number of friends and relatives throughout the community, for in spite of his advanced age of 73 years, he was hale and hearty until two weeks ago. The funeral takes place Tuesday afternoon.

Concrete is the best building material

A BROAD statement—Yet literally true. The aim of man from the beginning has been to make his building materials as nearly like natural stone as possible. The great labor required to quarry stone led him to seek various manufactured substitutes. The only reason he ever used wood was that it was easiest to get and most convenient to use. Wood is no longer easy to get. Like most building material, its cost is increasing at an alarming rate. The cost of concrete is decreasing. So, from the standpoint of either service or economy, Concrete is the best building material. Canada's farmers are using more concrete, in proportion to their numbers, than the farmers of any other country. Why? Because they are being supplied with a cement of the highest possible quality, which insures the success of their concrete work. The secret of concrete's popularity in Canada lies in the fact that while we have been advertising the use of concrete, we have also been producing, by scientific methods, a cement so uniformly high in quality that the concrete made with it gives the complete satisfaction our advertisements promised. Concrete would not have been in such universal use today, had an inferior grade of cement been supplied. Insist upon getting Canada Cement. It is your best assurance of thoroughly satisfactory results from your concrete work. There is a Canada Cement dealer in your neighborhood.

Without this label it is not "Canada" Cement.
